There is a presumption of innocence attached to every criminal charge. You have received a citation for a misdemeanor infraction to which this presumption of innocence applies. It is the State's burden to prove the charge(s) beyond a reasonable doubt. You are voluntarily submitting this Misdemeanor Resolution Form for the purposes of attempting to resolve the charge(s) prior to trial. You have the constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to refuse to testify at trial, the right to a speedy and public trial, the right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses the State may present, the right to subpoena witnesses to testify on your behalf, the right to testify on your own defense, and the right to retain an attorney. If the Justice Court determines you meet the criteria for indigent status, then the Justice Court may appoint an attorney to aid in your defense at any and all stages of the criminal proceedings. This is an example list, not an exhaustive list of your rights. Additionally, evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations are not admissible at trial pursuant to NRS 48.105; therefore, please provide any information that may assist in resolving your case. Use the space below to explain the facts that gave rise to the citation and what solution you would like to see.
